Attached Sheet for No. 6

This firm rendered legal services on miscellaneous legal matters to the five Embassies here listed at various times in the past. Since the period covered by the December 2, 1963 registration statement, no services of any kind were rendered by registrant to these Embassies, with the exception of the Embassy of Ivory Coast. (In that case advice was given during the period covered by the June 2, 1964 registration statement only to a member of the Embassy staff in connection with an automobile accident claim.) Registrant considers its arrangements for the rendering of legal services to have terminated with all of the five Embassies here listed. The date of June 3, 1965 is stated for purposes of convenience as the termination date, in order to indicate that no services of any kind have been rendered during registrant's last registration period to any of the five Embassies herein listed.
